Daughters of the American Revolution
York Town, Virginia

Dear Mrs. Lewis:

I am writing to you in hopes that you might be able to give me some information as I am working on a genealogy of my family. I have been searching records for many years and have traced back to Edward Palmer who came to York County aboard the 'Freindship' or 'Frenchship' (name not clear. He settled on the Tidwater. His son was Thomas Palmer, born about 1635-married Ann---?. Another Edward was ^{son} Thomas and married Elizabeth---?. He was born about 1664 and died about 1715. All lived out their lives there and no doubt later family members were engaged in the Revolutionary War.

I wrote to Mr. Seawell, President of the Historical Society once but did not receive a reply. I thought perhaps you might be able to advise where I might seek further information on the above. I would also be very grateful to learn if there is a historical society in Williamsburg. I have read in a history of Halifax County, Virginia that "Another residence of Nathaniel Bacon must have been near Williamsburg, for his tombstone now lies in a field on Dr. Tinsley's farm, while tombstones of the Palmer family are in the garden of that place"

Any information you might wish to send me will be very much appreciated. I will be happy to compensate you for your trouble in researching or send a donation to your chapter. Thank you.

Cordially,

Edwin D. Palmer

An article: "Abstracts of Marriage License Bonds on File in York County Clerk's Office"

15 October 1787 Allen Chapman gave bond as guardian of Ann, Elizabeth, William, Mary, and Charlotte Palmer, orphans of Benjamin Palmer.

(At Yorktown, in the Clerk's office, the bonds are merely bits of paper with a brief message written upon each. They are pasted or laminated upon large record book pages and make up the record of bonds. I presume this bond was "caught up" with the marriage bonds. I would suppose that there is another reference to it in an orders book. T.H.)

"Thomas Palmer, Carpenter. Built a house for Thomas Hansford who was executed as a Rebel (during Bacon's Rebellion). Debt for house was 3800 pounds of tobacco. Hansford's wife paid Palmer 7 hogsheds of tobacco, but this was seized by the Governor.

(The property of Thomas Hansford, my ancestor as well as my husband's, was taken over by the Crown after he was executed for his part in the defense of the colonists from Indian killings. Later, the King sent a committee to study the evidence surrounding the rebellion and the Hansford property was restored to the children of Thomas Hansford. His wife, Elizabeth Hansford, had also died within a few month's of her husband's decease. York County rented the house for use as a Court House for a short period of time. ing in Norfolk, Va. and is included in the Norfolk tour.)

Mrs. Nugent has listed the names of 25 different persons (Palmeres) who received patents or are mentioned in her book.

Daniel Palmer came over in The Warwick in 1621 and went to work in Kiccoughtan. That is the present city of Hampton (formerly Elizabeth City County) and joins York County.

Edmond Palmer was granted 900 A. in Isle of Wight Co., 21 June 1664. That is on the south side of the James River across from Jamestown which is in James City County; and James City Co joins York Co.

John Congdon was given 50 A Charles River Co. 21 Aug. 1638 for bringing over Edward Palmer and Nicholas Gibson. Charles River Co is York County. This land was situate on "back creek and south upon Cheesman's Creek. (When I look from my front windows I see Back Creek; when I come to the back windows I face Cheesman's Creek. Seaford is a peninsula.)

Edward Palmer obtained a grant for 400 A. in Petomeck freshes

(Note: Wagstaff was a York county name for many years; all gone now Looks like some of the migration to "new areas" or the frontier.)

Williamsburg, Saturday
April 29, 1775

"Last night an express arrived from Philadelphia with the following melancholy advices from the province of Connecticut, forwarded to the Committee of Correspondence of this city.

The blow (so much dreaded by our noble friend Lord Chatham) is now struck, a great deal of blood spilt, and much more, it is likely than the present advices communicate. That great man, in his speech upon the necessity of withdrawing the troops from Boston (delivered in the House of Lords, the 20th of Jan last) says: 'Perhaps, even whilst I am now speaking the decisive blow which may involve millions of the consequences and believe me, the very first drop of blood that is spilled will not be a wound easily skinned over, it will be irritable vulnus, a wound of that rancorous festering kind that, in all probability, will mortify the whole body.'

An express arrived at 5 o'clock this evening by which we have the following, viz:

'TO ALL FRIENDS OF AMERICAN LIBERTY

Be it known that this morning, before break of day, a brigade, consisting of about 1000 or 1200 men, landed at Phipps farm, at Cambridge, and marched to Lexington where they found a company of our colony militia in arms, upon whom they fired, without any provocation, and killed six men, and wounded four others. By an express from Boston, we found another brigade is now on its march from Boston, supposed to consist of 1000 men. The bearer, Rial Brisset, is charged to alarm the country, quite to Connecticut; and all persons are desired to furnish him with fresh horses, as they may be needed. I have spoken with several, who have seen the dead and wounded. Pray let the Delegates from this colony to Connecticut see this; they know Col. Foster, one of the Delegates.

To which Mrs. Causey said it may be it was a cream. No sayeth Mrs. Palmer, she was as braod awake as I am.

Whereas Mr. Grevill Pooly, minister, hath given forth speech that Mr. Fferrer and Mrs. Jurden lived skandelously together, being in court and willed to produce witnesses, he produceth none, but Mr. Causey, but sayeth he conceveth it scandalous for Mr. Fferrer to break the order in court which he hath done by being in ordinary dyett in Mrs. Jurdens house and to forfeit her company alone without some body else to be in place according to the order of Courte." - (It looks like this deed helps to establish when Richard Palmer left York County and moved to Hanover County.
Richmond, the capital of Virginia, is in Henrico County and that joins Hanover. In other words, Hanover is just "outside" Richmond and between that city and Fredericksburg.
Richmond is on the James River while Fredericksburg is on the Rappahannock River and rivers were avenues for travel and movement in the early days. Of course, you know that York County has the York River and Back Creek is a tributary. T.H.)
